International Panel of Arbitrators and Mediators

Introduction

Thank you for your interest in the ICDR® International Panel of Arbitrators and Mediators. The ICDR is the international division of the American Arbitration Association®, the world's leading provider of private dispute avoidance, conflict management, and dispute resolution services. The ICDR Panel is composed of specialists in international dispute resolution from around the world. This geographically diverse group is made up of highly regarded professionals from the business and legal communities.

Openings on our Panel are extremely limited and are based primarily on caseload needs, national diversity, and user preferences. Consequently, even candidates with strong credentials may not be added to our Panel. Both internal (ICDR Executive Staff) and external review committees screen candidates for their case management skills, substantive expertise, commitment, ethics, training, and suitability to the caseload. Panel members are required to have achieved academic and professional honors that mark them as leaders in their respective fields.

Qualifications

Applicants for membership on the ICDR Panel of Arbitrators and Mediators must meet or exceed the following requirements:

Education and Training

- a. Minimum of 15 years of senior-level business or professional experience
- b. Educational degree(s) and/or professional license(s) appropriate to your field of expertise
- c. Honors, awards, and citations indicating leadership in your field
- d. Training and substantial experience in arbitration, mediation, and/or other forms of out-of-court dispute resolution
- e. Membership in a professional association(s)
- f. Other relevant experience or accomplishments (e.g., published articles)

Neutrality

- a. Freedom from bias and prejudice
- b. Ability to evaluate and apply legal, business, or trade principles

Judicial Capacity

- a. Ability to manage the hearing process
- b. Thorough and impartial evaluation of testimony and other evidence

Reputation

- a. Held in the highest regard by peers for integrity, fairness, and good judgment
- b. Dedicated to upholding the AAA® Code of Ethics for Arbitrators and/or Standards of Conduct for Mediators

Commitment to ADR Process

- a. Willingness to devote time and effort when selected to serve
- b. Willingness to participate in continuing education programs pursuant to ICDR Guidelines

Personal Letter

Submit a letter explaining why you should be admitted to the ICDR International Panel of Arbitrators and Mediators. Please note that as a general rule only experienced international arbitrators and mediators will be considered. Your letter should also acknowledge your willingness to commit yourself to serving the needs of disputants, as well as a further commitment to attend the “best practices” seminars which form the cornerstone of the ICDR’s international administrative system.

Curriculum Vitae

Submit a copy of your current Curriculum Vitae. Please be sure that your experience in dispute resolution is adequately detailed.

ICDR Panel Application Form

Please download and complete the ICDR’s Panel Application Form and include the completed form with your application materials.

Application letters and curriculum vitae should be sent to the following person via electronic mail only:
