

Giorgio Sassine

Giorgio Sassine is a California and New York licensed attorney with Musick, Peeler & Garrett LLP's Los Angeles office and is a member of the firm's International Arbitration and Litigation and Construction Practice Groups. He earned his J.D. with an emphasis in International Law from University of San Diego School of Law and earned his LL.M. in International Commercial Arbitration from Stockholm University. While in law school, Mr. Sassine attended a summer program at the Sorbonne – Université Paris I Panthéon, where he was first introduced and became passionate about international commercial arbitration. Given his education background and passion for international arbitration, Mr. Sassine has extensive experience on domestic and international high-value, complex commercial, construction, and energy disputes. He has represented clients in the United States, Europe, the Middle East, and North Africa. The litigation and international arbitration matters have been in domestic and international forums. Prior to joining Musick Peeler, Mr. Sassine worked for several top-ranked law firms across the globe and domestically, including in Paris, Beirut, New York, Chicago, and San Francisco.

Apart from his advocate and educational experience, Mr. Sassine is also highly involved in the international arbitration community. He regularly writes and speaks on international arbitration issues and regularly coaches students for the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, and is currently coaching the University of California – Los Angeles team. He is also a Co-Chair of California Arbitration's ("CalArb") Programming Committee, a Co-Chair of California International Arbitration Week's Planning Committee, a Secretary of CalArb's Board of Directors, and is on CalArb's Executive Committee.
