PROGRAM

For young arbitration practitioners, the learning curve for complex international construction arbitrations can be steep. In this four-part webinar series, construction experts from around the world will discuss the core concepts young arbitration practitioners should understand when tasked with overseeing complex construction disputes. This webinar series is a must for any young arbitration practitioners seeking to understand the ins and outs of international construction disputes.

Webinar 2: Project Consulting and Dispute Avoidance – In the second webinar of the series, panelists Emma Niemistö, Elina Mereminskaya, Brandon Bang, and Albert Bates Jr. will discuss key issues involving the management of active construction projects and best practices concerning the avoidance of disputes. The one-hour program will discuss the nuts and bolts of counseling employers, contractors, and subcontractors through the life of a complex project and what issues practitioners should be alert to when first confronted with a dispute.
