The Future of International Arbitration: A Discussion with the Rising Stars

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

ICDR Y&I is pleased to announce a very special webinar, featuring the next generation of arbitration thought leaders.

The panelists will be selected by a committee consisting of members of the ICDR, the ICDR Y&I Executive Committee and the ICDR Y&I Global Advisory Board, on the basis of their written proposals.

All proposals must:

- Be the author's own original work and unpublished.
- Be submitted in a word document not exceeding 500 words;
- Address a topic of fresh interest or current controversy, including (but not limited to), (i) arbitration and environment, (ii) arbitration and artificial intelligence, (iii) arbitration in tax disputes; (iv) arbitration of mega-projects disputes, and (v) the future of international arbitration.
- Clearly identify the author's nationality/nationalities, age (applicants must be under 40 years of age), location, affiliation, and qualifications.
- Be submitted by 21 January 2022 to ICDRYI@adr.org.

Following the webinar, the selected panelists may be required to contribute a final paper for publication.
