

Santiago Gatica

Santiago Gatica is a senior associate at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer US LLP in New York. Before joining Freshfields, he practiced at leading firms in Uruguay and China. Santiago received his JD from the University of Montevideo and his LLM from Harvard Law School, and is qualified to practice law in both Uruguay and New York. His practice focuses on international commercial and investment arbitration, with an emphasis on Latin America. Santiago is recognized as an arbitration future leader by Who's Who Legal. He is a graduate and postgraduate professor of international arbitration at the University of Montevideo, frequently teaches in other Latin American academic institutions and regularly speaks on panels regarding his practice in the US, Latin America and Asia. He is also vice-chair of the Inter Pacific Bar Association (IPBA)'s Cross-Border Investment Committee, founder of the Uruguay Very Young Arbitration Practitioners, directive of the Uruguay-China Chamber of Commerce and co-chair of the International Arbitration Seminars & Courses (IASC) association. In the past he served as advisor in ICCA's Mentoring Programme and as member of the board of the Harvard International Arbitration Law Students Association.